2023 Camp Faculty

Jerry Noble, Featured Guest Faculty

Jerry Noble is director of percussion at Wright State University in Dayton, OH. He is the acting timpanist of the Dayton Philharmonic and an active drumset performer. Previously, Jerry was a member of the USAF Band of Flight where he performed over 1,500 concerts with the Concert band and as a drummer with the jazz band. He has toured the Caribbean for Princess Cruises, performed for Nationally touring Broadway shows, and performs with big bands, orchestras, and combos throughout the Midwest. Noble is an artist/clinician for Zildjian, Pearl/Adams, Freer Percussion, and Evans drum heads. We're so glad to have him back in Alaska for his third percussion camp!

Dr. Meggie Aube, Camp Artistic Director

Dr. Aube is a percussion performer and educator living in Palmer, AK. She maintains her teaching studio of over 40 students, Percussion in the Valley. The studio offers private and group lessons, classes and workshops to students of all ages. In addition, she is an adjunct professor at Mat-Su College. She performs actively as a soloist and in many ensembles throughout the state. Dr. Aube earned her bachelor's of Music from UAA and her master's and Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Iowa under the instruction of Dan Moore.

Tyler Martin, Wasilla, AK

Tyler Martin is a percussionist and music teacher living in Wasilla, AK. Before moving to Alaska, Tyler taught middle school and high school band in Mobile, Alabama. He is now the director of bands at Wasilla High School. Throughout his career he has taught drumline, concert band, orchestra, marching band, jazz band, percussion ensemble, and private lessons. Tyler graduated with a bachelor's degree in music education from Auburn University in 2018 and is working towards earning a master's degree in music education from William Carey University.

Kyle Drake, Anchorage, AK

Kyle graduated with a bachelor's in Music from the University of Alaska Anchorage in 2006. In 2008 he earned his Masters of Arts in Teaching through UAA. For the past 16 years Kyle has been teaching elementary music for the Anchorage School District. Kyle has studied percussion from the age of 11, studying with instructors John Damberg, Greg Holloway and Robert Arms to name a few. In addition to his public school teaching, Kyle is active in the music community teaching private lessons and playing with various local bands.

Jade Ferneza, Palmer, AK

Jade Ferneza is an educator and percussionist living in Palmer, AK. She has been studying percussion for 15 years. She earned her Bachelor of Arts in Music Education and Master of Education in Special Education from Slippery Rock University, and her Master of Education in Trauma-Informed Education from Columbia College. She moved to Alaska to explore this beautiful state a few years ago, and has taught special education at MSBSD since. Previously she has taught preschool music, marching band, concert band, and music for students with disabilities. She remains active in music by teaching private lessons and performing with local community groups.
